

Young Professionals Organization

2017 EVENTS

Each year, the Young Professionals Organization (YPO) hosts a number of professional development and social opportunities to serve its membership. Below are a list of events and dates for the 2017 calendar year. As event details are confirmed we will update this list with supplementary information. Participation is an excellent opportunity to build business connections, and offers increased visibility within the local business community. We value your attendance and look forward to helping you achieve your business and professional goals in 2017 and beyond.
